

VeteranCaregiver.com Overview

Why VeteranCaregiver.com?

We take a fresh, direct, and empowering approach to military and veteran caregivers. New initiatives make delivery of key information easy during the small pockets of time you have, off any device. We believe in Post-Traumatic Growth, and know that renewed learning, leadership, and a strong, healthier well-being contributes to fully invested caregivers and families. Join us if you believe that caregivers are resourceful, persistent, organized, and strong – and know your voice is heard.

Our Services & Stats:

- Directly serve 16,500 families of all eras, 393,825 caregiver families online
- Thousands guided to mental health resources with 203 suicide preventions
- Memorandum of Understanding with VA Crisis/LifeLine for warm handoffs
- Partnering with vet/caregiver/milspouses peer support line: Vets4Warriors
- MilitaryNetworkRadio & MilMomTalkRadio – 3,000,000 monthly downloads
- Informative short videos w/Resource Lists, over 610,000 views to date
- Active two-way communication & advocacy via active social media strategy
- Foster Caregiver/Family Meetups® for in-person, casual caregiver fellowship in their local communities
- Resources, Multiple Advocacy Networks, Leadership Skills Growth
- Wellness Support, including CAM therapy resources

Bottom line: Caregivers, veterans, and military families must see and hear real people sharing information of genuine, essential value to immediately improve daily living. You judge our worth by your interaction and we earn it daily. We care – and it shows.

We welcome experts, advocates, sponsors, organizations, and individuals who believe as we do. Contact us to add further value to caregivers and military families. Everyone serves, and together we make a difference.

The VeteranCaregiver Team

Proprietary Overview of VeteranCaregiver.com, a division of WiseHealth, Inc. All rights reserved.
Updated November 2016. Contact: LKreter@WiseHealth.com, 410-703-5810.